

The Presbytery of Cincinnati met on Tuesday, September 9, 2008
at Knox Presbyterian Church.

Your Presbytery Link -- highlights of what we did

Prior to the meeting...

HEARD reports from this year's General Assembly commissioners: elders George Betz (Union), Barbara Harrison (Sycamore), and Susan Ingmire (Mt. Auburn); ministers Cinda Gorman (co-pastor, Westwood First), and Maurice Mitchell (pastor, Hillsboro First).

LEARNED about "link2lead.com" resources from the Percept Group. Bob Clary (HR), a member of the presbytery presented the information and is available to assist churches who wish to use it.

During the meeting...

ELECTED committee members and chairpersons: Ecclesiastical Affairs – Jim Steiner (interim pastor, Calvin); Ministry – L.P. Jones (pastor, Mt. Washington) and Rhonda O'Reilly (member at-large); Nominating – Mary Ann Jacobs (St. John's Westminster); Personnel – Daniel Watson (member at-large); Preparation for Ministry – Kathy Barlow Westmoreland (pastor, St. John's Westminster).

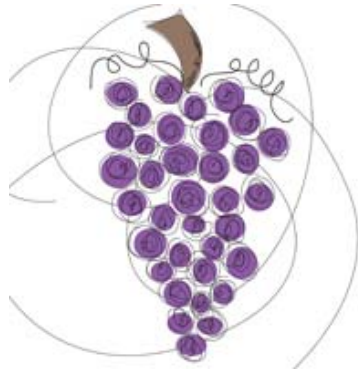

LEARNED about the services, resources and programs of Llanfair

Retirement Community from Executive Director Sheena Parton. She encouraged congregations to partner with Llanfair.

MET Ben Darby, who will be working this year with St. John's Westminster as part of General Assembly's Young Adult Volunteer program. He is a graduate of Hanover College and a member of Harvey Brown Presbyterian Church in Louisville.

WORSHIPED. The service included the installation of Moderator Tom York (pastor, Knox) and Vice Moderator Bill Brown (elder, Kennedy Heights).

SHARED an extended period of fellowship and refreshment.
